

Pharmaca Integrative Pharmacy donates more than $7,000 to local charities
Vitamins, health aids and donations support charities working locally and globally

Menlo Park, Calif. (January 6, 2011) – Pharmaca Integrative Pharmacy, Inc. announced that it has made in-kind donations of health and wellness products and cash contributions to 501(c)3s here totaling $7,250. The donations were made when local pharmacist Chet Yee transitioned from his Menlo Park Pharmacy to the new Pharmaca store at 871 Santa Cruz Avenue, which opened in November 2010.

About the donations

Menlo Medical Global Outreach Alliance of the Menlo Park Presbyterian Church, Menlo Park, Calif.

Pharmaca donated $2,750 worth of vitamins, medicines, health aids and support braces for the Global Outreach Alliance's relief work in the rural areas of Central and South America and Mexico.

Harvest Home Mission

Pharmaca donated $2,000 in vitamins, medicines, and health aids (including incontinence supplies) for their relief work in the rural areas of Mexico.

Woodside Village Church

Pharmaca contributed $1,500 worth of products to be included in Woodside Village's ongoing benevolent donations to underprivileged and homeless citizens in the Bay Area.

Annual Jerry Rice Toy Drive

$1,000, a portion of Pharmaca's Grand Opening weekend sales, were given to this annual event that provides toys and stuffed animals to the underprivileged youth of San Mateo county.

The donations are an integral part of Pharmaca's mission of meaningful community involvement. "We're so pleased to be able to make these donations to such worthy causes in Menlo Park," says Stuart Gratz, Vice President of Pharmacy Operations. "We will continue to seek out new ways to serve the community and offer health and wellness opportunities in the city."
